Notice Regarding the End Semester Examination

This is to notify that all the End Semester Examinations under Kathmandu University School of Management shall be held in off-line mode as per the Academic Calendar. All students, faculties and concerned are requested to take note that there is no scope of on-line exams for end semester evaluation purposes despite some compulsion to take online classes due to new upsurge in Covid-19 infections in the country. Also, all are kindly requested to strictly follow the Covid-19 protocol issued by the Government in all circumstances.
